In addition, we referred 9 of the 156 cases to the County Equity Oversight Panel (CEOP) to investigate. CEOP handles discrimination, harassment, and retaliation cases and does not report their findings to OCI. Therefore, we maintain logs of each CEOP referral for tracking purposes only.

As the lead department for fraud investigations of County employees and contractors, OCI oversees and reviews the final reports for cases referred to, and investigated by, other County departments to ensure the allegations are properly investigated. OCI also contacts designated departmental staff every 90 days to obtain updates on cases where disciplinary and/or corrective actions are pending (Attachments III and IV) from previous semi-annual reports. Attachment III indicates the 62 prior reporting period cases that have been completed with disciplinary actions taken. Attachment IV shows there are 81 cases from previous reporting periods that are still pending final disciplinary decisions from various departments.
